EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. The Amendment filed July 31, 2006 in response to the Office Action of May 5, 2006 is acknowledged and has been entered. Previously pending claims 28, 31, 34, and 35 were amended. Claims 28-36 are currently under prosecution.

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Robert Netter on 10/5/2006 and 10/12/2006.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

Claim 28: An antibody immunologically specific for an isolated human PD2 protein consisting of SEQ ID NO:2, wherein said human PD2 protein ~~is about 531 amino acid in length and~~ comprises an amino terminal helix-loop-helix domain and a centrally localized nuclear transport signal and nucleotide binding site.

Claim 34: A kit for detecting human PD2 protein consisting of SEQ ID NO:2 or a fragment thereof in a sample, said kit comprising the antibody as claimed in claim 28 and optionally said PD2 protein for use as a positive control and instructional material.

Reasons for Allowance

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicants amended claim 34 to recite "said" PD2 protein to overcome the 112 2nd paragraph rejection of claims 34-36 of section 5, page 3 in the previous Office Action. Applicants amended claim 28 to recite an antibody immunologically specific for an isolated Pd2 protein "consisting" of SEQ ID NO:2 to overcome the 112 first paragraph rejections of claims 28-36 in sections 7 and 8, p. 4-9 of the previous Office Action. This amendment excludes antibodies that would bind to unknown regions outside of SEQ ID NO:2 that would have unknown function.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
